SECRET

Approved For Release 2005/08/24: CIA-RDP80B01495R000700180029-8

12 July 75

MFMORANDUM SUBJECT: Executive Council Meeting on 1 July 1975 Mr. Proctor chaired. Substituting was 25X 1. Mr. Proctor noted that because of developments in India, we might have to be careful 25X 2. Mr. Colby has decided that Omego Ware will be EEO Chief; of DDO will be the Deputy Chief. 3. Mr. Walsh reported that in the view of the General Counsel, the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a weeklong session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X'
Mr. Proctor chaired. Substituting was 1. Mr. Proctor noted that because of developments in India, we might have to be careful 2. Mr. Colby has decided that Omego Ware will be EEO Chief; of DDO will be the Deputy Chief. 3. Mr. Walsh reported that in the view of the General Counsel, the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a week- long session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X' 25X' Chief
1. Mr. Proctor noted that because of developments in India, we might have to be careful 2. Mr. Colby has decided that Omego Ware will be EEO Chief; of DDO will be the Deputy Chief. 3. Mr. Walsh reported that in the view of the General Counsel, the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a week- long session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X'
2. Mr. Colby has decided that Omego Ware will be EEO Chief; of DDO will be the Deputy Chief. 3. Mr. Walsh reported that in the view of the General Counsel, the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a weeklong session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X
3. Mr. Walsh reported that in the view of the General Counsel, the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a weeklong session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful.
the publication of the Rockefeller report automatically declassified any aspects of intelligence mentioned therein. The report will be reviewed carefully for its affect on FOIA decisions. Mr. Proctor reported on a meeting with Lynn Davis and others from the Senate Select Committee concerning DDO reporting. Mr. Proctor briefed the staff on our statistics for coverage and sources. 4. Mr. Eisenbeiss reported on the pilot running of a weeklong session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X* Chief long session on leadership. He found one element of the program, a day-long session on the psychology of change, to be particularly useful. 25X
25X ² Chief
Chief 25X^

25X1

25X1

Approved For Release 2005/08/24 : CIA-RDP80B01495R000700180029-8

SECRET